

“Build Your Knowledge”

Matching Game Activity Instructions

Trainer Instructions

1. Compile a list of state and local agencies providing services to children and families including representative images (logos, representative pictures, etc.) and a brief description of services for each agency.
2. In envelopes place one copy of each image, and one copy of each description (cut into separate pieces).
3. Provide one envelope to each small group and instruct them to work as a team to match each agency with the services provided.

Participant Instructions

Work together as a group to identify which description of services belongs to each agency.

Cut-Outs for North Carolina-specific images (logos, representative pictures, etc.) and description of services for each agency

Family Support Network[™] of North Carolina
Serving families since 1985 through a network of affiliated local programs

North Carolina & Virginia

CCR&R Council

North Carolina Child Care Resource and Referral Council

North Carolina Promoting Healthy Social Behaviors in Child Care Statewide Initiative

Provides services to children 0-2 including: Developmental evaluations, therapeutic services and family support.

Exceptional Children – developmental evaluations, special education services and related therapeutic services for children 3-5.

Offers support for families of children with special needs by providing a one-one parent match with a trained support parent for emotional support, assistance with community resources and shared experiences.

Provide information and training to parents and families of children with special needs and challenging behaviors. Services include lending library, workshops, information packet and newsletters.

The facility provides early intervention services to children with and without disabilities in order to provide an inclusive educational environment for all children. Services include early intervention, childcare, therapeutic services, family support and evaluations.

This statewide program provides diagnostic evaluations, treatment planning and implementation, early childhood education and support employment assistance for individuals of all ages with autism and communication related handicaps.

National advocate for all people with intellectual and developmental disabilities and their families. Support services include advocacy, family support, recreational programs, and residential support.

Provides an interrelated set of services to families, child care providers, employers, and communities that facilitate access to early care and education and school-age child care options for families; improve the quality of those child care options; and provide objective information for planning and policy development to the public and private sectors.

Assist licensed child care programs with strategies to work with children with challenging behaviors through technical assistance and professional development support services.

“Build Your Knowledge”

Matching Activity Answer Key (for NC specific resources)

Children’s Development Services Agency

Provides services to children 0-2 including developmental evaluations, therapeutic services and family support.

Charlotte Mecklenburg Schools

Exceptional Children – developmental evaluations, special education services and related therapeutic services for children 3-5.

Family Support Network

Offers support for families of children with special needs by providing a one-one parent match with a trained support parent for emotional support, assistance with community resources and shared experiences.

Exceptional Children’s Assistance Center (ECAC)

Provide information and training to parents and families of children with special needs and challenging behaviors. Services include lending library, workshops, information packet and newsletters.

Easter Seals - United Cerebral Palsy Center

The facility provides early intervention services to children with and without disabilities in order to provide an inclusive educational environment for all children. Services include early intervention, childcare, therapeutic services, family support and evaluations.

TEACCH

This statewide program provides diagnostic evaluations, treatment planning and implementation, early childhood education and support employment assistance for individuals of all ages with autism and communication related handicaps.

ARC

National advocate for all people with intellectual and developmental disabilities and their families. Support services include advocacy, family support, recreational programs, and residential support.

North Carolina Child Care Resource and Referral Agencies

Provides an interrelated set of services to families, child care providers, employers, and communities that facilitate access to early care and education and school-age child care options for families; improve the quality of those child care options; and provide objective information for planning and policy development to the public and private sectors.

Promoting Healthy Social Behaviors for Children in Child Care Statewide Initiative

Assist licensed child care programs with strategies to work with children with challenging behaviors through technical assistance and professional development support services.